I. My Family

Read the following passage. Then look at the picture on the next page.

I have a big family. My family is the biggest family in my village. I have six brothers and eight sisters. This is a picture of my family.

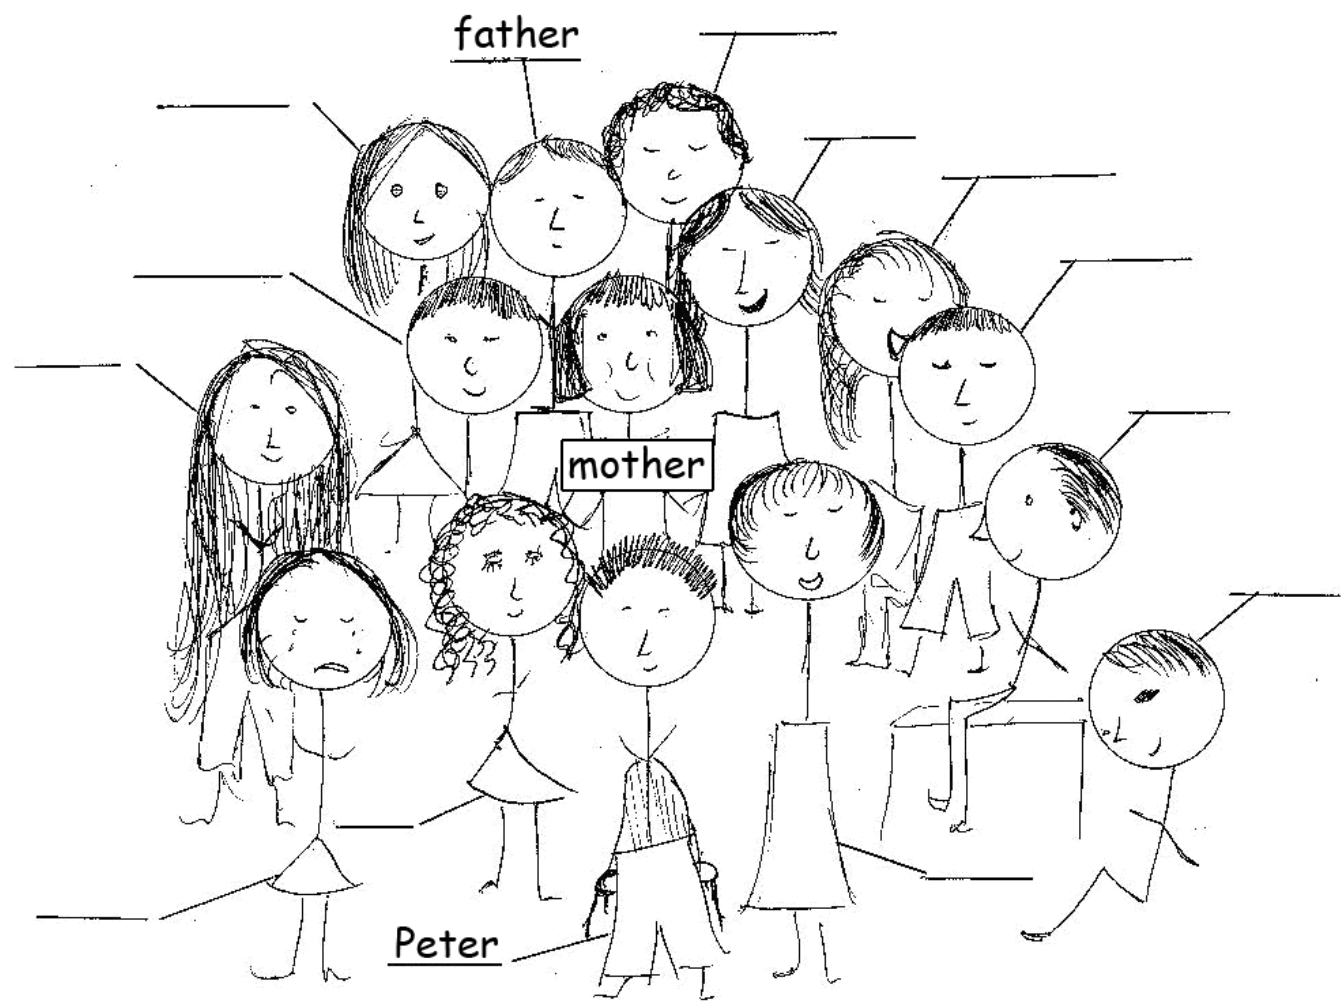

My mother is standing between my brother Nick and my sister, Erika. Erika is very tall. She is taller than my brother, Nick – but Nick is older than her. Jack is standing in front of Bess. Bess is always laughing. Bess is older than Erika and but younger than Nick. My youngest sister is crying. Her name is Beth.

This is my brother Peter, who's older than Erika and younger than Bess. He's sitting on a chair, between Sophie and Charlotte. Charlotte is shorter than Sophie. Ben is sitting on the floor; he's older than Charlotte and Sophie. Ken is younger than Charlotte and older than Sophie. He is sitting on the table. My other sister Katherine has the longest hair in my family. She's my oldest sister.

My father is standing behind my mother. He's standing between Lucy and Ruth, who are both very tall, but Ruth is a little bit taller than Lucy. Lucy is younger than Ruth and older than Ben. Ruth is younger than Erika. Jack is my youngest brother, he's older than Beth.

Write the names next to the people in the picture
