Spend a night in the Ban Khao Pung village near the beautiful Khao Sok Lake and experience this quaint way of life. Participate in handicraft and livelihood demonstrations with your hosts and learn about their culture. Pick vegetables from your host's garden for a true garden to table meal. Spend your nights at a floating bungalow on a majestic lake. Enjoy eco adventures or relax in the tranquility of nature.

Day 1 Cultural Exchange

- Noon Check in at our Ta Khun Office and meet your guide
Take a short journey to the nearby village of Khao Pang
Meet your local host and hop on a 3-wheel motorcycle
Tour the local Temple and get a firsthand look at Ta Khun's oldest place of worship
Enjoy the view from the hanging bridge that sits at the foot of the temple
Check in to your homestay
Join your host and guide for a trip around the local mixed orchards to learn more about the area's farming practices, pick some veggies (and fruits) for your dinner
Go for a swim in the Phra Saeng river
Return to your host home to help prepare dinner and eat together
- Evening Take a swim in the river to cool off, before returning to make a home-cooked meal with your host family

Overnight: Homestay, simple and comfortable

Day 2 Natural Wonders

- Morning Rise early to pick some herbs to make some tea or add local flavor to your coffee. If you'd like to get some more farming experience, you can help plant a tree or tap rubber. Breakfast with your homestay family. Meet your guide and join with a group (if group option), make your way to Cheow Lan Lake's Rajjaparaba Pier. Board your long tail boat & enjoy a scenic tour of the "Guilin of Thailand" on your way to the raft house. Have a delectable Thai lunch overlooking Cheow Lan lake. Depending on the season, your guide will lead you through the jungle to either the Coral Cave, the lake Viewpoint, or the Nam Talu Cave. Evening safari by boat. Return to the raft house for Dinner.
